

Reports are submitted in Watermark, the institution's online assessment management system, by July 31 each year.

Following a review by the Office of Academic Affairs, a meta-assessment is conducted by the UNA General Education Task Force measuring the extent to which student learning outcomes, direct measures, data analysis and continuous improvement actions are appropriate and effective and comply with University reporting requirements.

Meta assessment results are shared with departments and used to inform the assessment process.

